Shawn Kittelsen is the writer of Mortal Kombat X, a bestselling comic series published by DC Comics and based on the legendary games. His screenplays have received the MPI Fellowship, a Coca-Cola Refreshing Filmmakers Award, and the Russell Hexter Grant. Formerly a Creative Executive for DC Entertainment, he contributed to blockbuster titles including Batman: Arkham City and Injustice: Gods Among Us. As a Creative Director, he led award-winning marketing campaigns for Activision, Deep Silver, Square Enix and Ubisoft.

A surprisingly excellent story. Very unlike the Injustice series which was far too long winded and seemed to go into places that even an Alt.Reality shouldn't bother with. I truly loved some of the character development in just this 1st volume. Can't wait for the next one.

I might be biased since MK has had a spot in my heart for a long time, so I'll just comment on the product itself. The artwork is amazing. Detailed and practically leaping off the page, you can tell they went all out in terms of having it look good. It feels good as well, has a nice weight and you know it won't be a super short read, and it just feels like a quality product. Storyline is just awesome, but again, you know. I highly recommend this to MK fans even if you haven't played MKX (like me).

Great story

Very awesome read. One minor gripe, only because he's my favorite character, is there's not enough Sub-Zero. Still definitely worth the purchase. Especially if you're a Mortal Kombat fan.

I love mortal kombat and the comic is equally as great as the game itself! And yes, this does contain issues 1-4. I was weary of that myself. Excellent writing! Hard to put down!

fantastic read for fans of the games and normal comic book readers alike.

Nice gift.

I really like this new story of Mortal Kombat X and it's better than ever. You need to pick up this book and it's really great.
