Efrat haddi is a mother of three children with extensive experience in education and love for kids . In recent years, she is working with children in a democratic school where democracy is both a goal and a method of instruction. Democratic education brings democratic values such as justice, respect and trust to education, and includes self-determination within a community of equals. In her books she combine her life's experiences with diverse knowledge accumulated while working with kids over the years, all in a sensitive, positive and inspiring way. Her books are always filled with fun, and fun pictures.

Do you like to look at the moon? Did you know the moon changes shape? The author, Efrat Haddi, has written a fun book about a little character who wants to catch the moon. What do you think of that idea? In this book, the character tries many methods of catching the moon, all of them are pretty funny, but quite imaginative. When you read this book you will discover all the methods the character uses, and will be able to answer, 'Does he catch the moon?' Adults and their children will enjoy reading this book. The children will giggle and laugh at all of the efforts of the character. There will be discussions about each effort, and what the child might do to catch the moon. The illustrations by Abira Das are bright, colorful, vivid and bright. They depict all of the adventures of the characters. This is a fun book for all. Recommended. prisrob 05-29-17

Interesting story, pretty drawings and there are parts of interaction activities in between the pages. Good for kids thinking of the reaction. Recommended for kids age 4 to 6.

Out of all the books I bought my daughter loves this one best. It's a thin paperback that looks printed with an inkjet but it's all about the quality of content with these little ones.

Great page by page interactive physical comedy. Got my son to giggle to death. Just got 3 more books from this author.

My grandson loves me to read this to him

given as present loves books

I like to catch the moon. I think the monkey is very brave because he fell down a couple times but he didn't cry and kept trying.
