Zion National Park And Surrounding Area Travel Guide, Camping Guide And Hiking Guide

Synopsis

This unique travel/hiking/camping guide of Zion National Park and the surrounding area is easy to use, double sided and folds down like a map from 24"x36" to 6"x9", printed in full color on water & tear-resistant paper. There is a map showing how to get to Zion and what you can do along the way, such as stopping at the petting zoo for family fun, visiting a ghost town or where to stop for horseback rides and doggy daycare. There is a map of the shuttle service stops in Springdale (the town at the entrance to Zion). There is information about the vehicle restrictions for the drive-through tunnel in Zion National Park. Included is a map of Utah showing all five National Parks, National Monuments & other places to visit AND State Park Campgrounds, Forest Service Campgrounds and National Park Campgrounds. And of course there is a map of Zion National Park showing shuttle stops, hiking trails, points of interest, restrooms and parking. Also included is a detailed description of each hiking trail with a rating of easy, moderate or strenuous. Other extras are an itinerary guide for three to five days of day hiking in Zion, average monthly weather conditions, contact information for campground reservations and other useful tid-bits of information that will help make your visit to Zion amazing! You don't need to waste your time reading a book about which of Zion's hiking trails are best for you or try to figure out which trails are kid friendly - it's all here! You don't have to read a confusing topo hiking map - our hiking map is easy to read and use! You don't have to get frustrated researching what campgrounds are in the area - we have done that for you! We have also listed reservation contact information and a brief description of all of the local campgrounds both privately owned and government operated.
