Aperture 152: Crossing Borders, Contemporary Czech & Slovak Photography

Synopsis

Aperture 152 Crossing Borders: Contemporary Czech and Slovak Photography Fall 1998 A new generation of Czech and Slovak photographers--heirs to the legacy of such modern masters as Josef Sudek and Frantisek Driktol--will be the subject of the August 1998 issue of Aperture, featuring images never before published in the West. In the Aperture tradition of investigating the contemporary photography of individual nations, Crossing Borders probes the cultural, social, and emotional climate of the post-Communist era as experienced by twenty-three photographers. The writings of such prominent Czech and Slovak writers as the novelist Jan Novak, author of The Willys Dream Kit, and the poet Anna Ondrejková help to illuminate the full dimensions of contemporary creative life in the Czech and Slovak Republics. Photographers: Pavel Banka, Judita Csáková, Jiřina Černá, Bohdan Holomáček, Viktor Kolar, Josef Koudelka, Antonín Kratochvíl, Zdeněk Lhoták, Ivan Lutterer, Jan Malý, Pavel Mášra, Pavel Pecha, Ivan Pinkava, Jan Pohribný, Jirka Poláček, Rudo Prekop, Vasil Stanko, Tono Stano, Kamil Varga, Peter Á...
