If you're looking to visit Glasgow, this is a nice guide with a checklist of great to-do's. Each section of the book contains a link to visit the website of each attraction/restaurant/experience for up-to-date info. Very handy.

I really enjoyed reading this book. We're planning a trip to glasgow this november and this is probably one of the most informative books on how to skip the tourist traps. We'll definitely be sampling the local whiskeys and plan that trip to the local farmers market. I highly recommend this book.

Good short and precise information for a visitor. Will be visiting some of the locations.
