The sentences are long and complicated. It will help the kids to read themselves if sentences are short and simple. Please use the scriptures do not alter the scriptures because it's against the word of God. I felt like the sentences are altered from God's word.

No sugar coating. True Gospel!

It's worth the money. A little hard to read at first because the rhyming and rhythm is a little strange but my little 2 year old enjoys it.

Good deal and a cute book. Perfect for a young child, we got this as an Easter basket stuffer and it was the perfect size too.

Cute book and illustrations

Wonderful book to introduce biblical concepts to little ones! I have bought several books from this author and my toddler loves them all!

This is a nice story of Jesus life and it rhymes. My only criticism is that the meter and rhyme doesn't flow nicely. It's just a little off and I really appreciate it when a meter and rhyme has a nice easy rhythm to it.

Such a cute book!
