Moon Handbooks Connecticut

Synopsis

Classic town greens and Colonial homesteads, folk music and blackjack, art galleries and outlet stores, history museums and amphitheaters, leaf-peeping and fine dining ensure that you're never short of options in the Nutmeg State. Moon Handbooks Connecticut reveals the state in its entirety, with thorough coverage of the Connecticut Coast, the Connecticut River Valley, Western Hills, and Eastern Hills. Author Andrew Collins shares inside tips on undiscovered gems worth seeking out and attractions that can't be missed such as Mystic's best lobster shacks, the covered bridges and country inns of Litchfield County, and Woodbury's elegant antique shops. Highlights of Connecticut's engaging history, captivating landscape, and charming communities are intertwined with selective coverage of amenities and services to guide the traveler on an enriching and extraordinary travel experience.
