The Best Of The Wednesday Workshops: Volume 1

Synopsis

The best of the Wednesday Workshops: Volume 1 is the first in a revised and expanded collection of the writers' workshops presented on the E-Read Erotica website. Every article has been revised, edited, and expanded upon for this collection, and gathered together here as a reference guide for writing erotic romance. The collection is written by Sylvia Storm, a noted reviewer of over 500 erotic books, and also the authoress of the nearly 100 self-help articles on the site. She bases the articles on the most common issues and problems she sees in her reviews, so this first volume is a collection of what the most common problems she sees in erotic in her reviews, and how to solve them. The workshops cover the following: Dialog and Punctuation, Dialog Tags, Adverbs, Saying Less With More, RUE, Showing and not Telling, Simplicity and Clutter, Sex as Action Scenes, How Sex and Comedy Scenes Relate, Writing in the Negative Space, Have, Has, and Had. In addition, the original pacing workshop was completely rewritten, and broken apart into four entirely new workshops only found in this volume: Pacing, Building Towards the End, A Little Less Obvious, Skip Scenes and Jump Cuts. This collection has fifteen chapters of writing advice specifically tailored to the erotic romance market. If you are thinking about writing your own erotic romance novel, please check this collection out and discover the most common mistakes and issues found in erotic writing.
