Customer Reviews

"Living and Working in Britain" gave me a feel of how it would be to live in England as a foreigner. I have British family, and Miss. Hall's description of the British was very accurate! There is a small section describing how the British react to a bit of snow which I found absolutely hilarious as I come from the Great White North (Canada). Also, the Case Studies of other immigrants to the UK was very helpful as it gave different view points in many different situations. Overall, I found this book very helpful and I plan to recommend it to friends or family who wish to move to the UK. Many thanks to the author, Christine Hall; a wonderfully written book!
