Customer Reviews

These Decorative notebooks can fit in your purse so conveniently. Give these as a gift, use as a diary, Make a grocery list. My daughter uses hers to schedule customers for her husbands business. Very nice. I love these and got 5 for myself and 5 for my daughter!

I don't know how many times I needed to write something down and had no paper. I usually end up jotting a note on the back of a receipt and then I can't find the receipt. This is the perfect purse size for me. It is on the small size but I knew that when I bought it. It fits in my purse and the cover is strong enough that it shouldn't bend while being stored with the rest of my stuff. Of course, I love Van Gogh and the song 'Starry, Starry Night', so this is my favorite little notepad.

these are Mini blank page notebooks with pretty artwork covers.size = small calendar that is usually kept in purse. was >$2 and great for doodles/notes/any thing you can think of.

These are cute books. They are small, can fit into the palm of your hand, and make great notepads for a purse or backpack. They are not lined, and this may throw some people off. Overall, a good purchase for around a buck.

I bought this thinking it would be a full-sized notebook and I was getting a great deal and honestly was trying to hit my $25 mark for free shipping. It does mention the dimensions of the notebook so I guess it is my own fault for not looking hard enough. It also doesn't have lines on the pages but now I just stuck it in my purse for when I need to jot down random things, so that is useful I suppose.

This is not the size of a notebook, more the size of a small pad. Perhaps who ever wrote the discription had a fight with his lover, detached his ear, and thought he was told to give the notebook to that passing female co worker instead of the pad. Who knows what really happened? Whether pad or notebook I still like looking at the print :)

Cute, no lines, pocket size and nice on the outside. They're built well enough and are great for note taking. I don't see the point of giving them any less than 5 stars for their look and price.

I was looking for a small blank notebook so I ordered this one but it has less pages than I was expecting. In the description it said it was 64 pages but it really only has 32. I guess it's technically 64 if you count front and back. Also, I was expecting a harder cover like small journals often have but it's still a nice notebook and a good price.
