A Time For Beauty - Saving Mr Spencer

Synopsis

Beauty and bitterness, family and faithfulness, hidden hearts and stolen hopes â “ all meet together in this clean regency tale telling the salvation of one manâ ™s hardened heart. Family troubles force Charlotte Hughes to leave her home to become governess to the children of the grim and joyless, John Spencer. Mr Spencer bears the scars of the tragic fire that cost the life of his wife and the childrenâ ™s mother, leaving his heart as monstrously disfigured as his face. As Charlotteâ ™s warm bond with the children grows the cold aloofness of their embittered father seems even more pronounced until one night, seemingly out of the blue, gentle Charlotte is invited to join the family for their evening mealâ |Can Mr Spencerâ ™s heart truly be healed? And will Charlotteâ ™s growing compassion for this noble but broken man remain unrequited?

Customer Reviews

Nice and clean historical, fall in love with the governess story.

A warm loving story which I enjoyed very much. It is a short tale of a young woman who becomes a governess to two young children whose mother was killed in a fire. They fell in love with her. Their father was quiet and seemed kind of rigid. By the end of the book everything was happily different.

Charlotte was a young woman who was trying to help her family with expenses. She signs on as a governess and enjoys her job very much. There are sure to be some surprises when you read this book.

This book shows that doing the right thing and trusting in God and is the right way to go .

Book was great Ã¢Â• great short story.

It was a good short read

Good reading.
