Customer Reviews

Very helpful book, describing locations to see, good restaurants and general information about Malta and Gozo

My wife and I are spending a week in Malta over Christmas, it will be our second visit and this time we decided to buy the Lonely Planet guide (we already own LPGs for many other countries) to ensure we maximise the value of our holiday.

I recently bought this Kindle version for Malta to have on my phone and ipad while traveling. I found the maps really helpful during my trip. However, sometimes it was hard to get back to the place I was in a chapter when I click on a link to read more about a particular point of interest. Not sure if it is the ebook or could just be user error. There is not a ton of info on Malta and this book does a good job in giving you an overview. Malta is super rich in history and just a fascinating country to visit. I'm sure I will be back and glad I have a good book that will help me plan my next adventure there!

Handy tool for planning a trip to Malta and Gozo and seeing what there is to see.

This is a great little book. There aren't many travel books on Malta or Gozo. Thanks Lonely Planet!

What I needed

Like

Very uninspired guide. The Bradt guide to Malta and Gozo by Juliet Rix is far superior. Just returned from Malta where I used both guides. The Bradt was my go to guide and the Lonely Planet couldn't compete with it.
