Customer Reviews

I bought this book as a way to gain some insights into traveling around New Zealand by camper van, as well as to provide my wife with some reassurances about this plan for our upcoming trip. The book is well-written, well illustrated with great photographs, and provides useful details for anyone planning a lengthy road trip in a camper van in New Zealand.

Easy reading book providing good information for planning a trip to New Zealand. Good to hear the experiences of other travelers. Appreciated the references given at the end of the book.

Fantastic read for anyone who wants to see the world on a budget and not miss anything.

Beautifully written! Great stories and first hand information. I felt like I was on the adventure with the authors!
