Customer Reviews

“Little ones can learn to count to ten in style with this gorgeously illustrated book. Little Mouse is back with more questions to be answered by counting the creatures on the page. Then there's a big flap to lift with more creatures and numbers underneath. The flaps are easy for little fingers, with a little cut-out to aid opening and I like the fact that, once opened, they go back into place just as they were, ready for the fun to begin again. There is plenty more interest in the pictures to talk about too.” - Parents in Touch
