Synopsis

There are many people who are enthusiastic about foodâ "the cooking of it, the preparation of it, the serving of it, and letâ ™s not forget the eating of it. But Sebastian Bond is the ultimate Food Enthusiast. This is another of his books with spot-on reviews of the most exciting restaurants in town. Some will merit only a line or two, just to bring them to your attention. Others deserve a half page or more. â œExcitingâ • does not necessarily mean expensive. The areaâ ™s top spots get the recognition they so richly deserve (and that they so loudly demand), but there are plenty of â œsensible alternativesâ • for those looking for good food handsomely prepared by cooks and chefs who really care what they â œplate upâ • in the kitchen. For those with a touch of Guy Fieri, Bond ferrets out the best food for those on a budget. That dingy looking dive bar around the corner may serve up one of the juiciest burgers in town, perfect to wash down with a locally brewed craft beer. Whatever your predilection or taste, cuisine of choice or your budget, you may rely on Sebastian Bond not to disappoint. Bond dines anonymously at the Publisherâ ™s expense. No restaurant listed in this series has paid a penny or given so much as a free meal to be included. Bon AppÃ©tit!
