Mary Fabyan Windeatt lived from 1910-1979 and grew up in Saskatchewan, Canada. The Mount Saint Vincent College awarded her a Licentiate of Music degree when she was just seventeen, and she began writing Catholic works when she was about twenty-four. Later she sent one of her stories to a Catholic magazine, and after it was accepted, she continued to write. In total she composed at least twenty-one children's books, as well as periodical children's pages written for The Torch, a monthly Dominican magazine. Mary Windeatt is most renowned for her many novels of the saints, which she wrote specifically for children, including lives on the Children of Fatima, Cure of Ars, St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Rose of Lima and many others. After living with her mother in St. Meinrad, Indiana, she died on the twentieth of November, 1979.

Got this for my grandson, age 9. He said he liked it and especially enjoyed reading how Paul escaped several times. He is a good reader, so the book wasn't too much for him. He is looking forward to reading others in the series.

This is a wonderful book for our youth. Our son loves reading these biographies. The saints really come alive through the pages of a Windeatt book.

Great for library

The price was great, and the book is wonderful...I was/am very impressed with this seller.

This is an excellent book about the Apostle St. Paul. It is a well written account of his life. Very informative and enjoyable to read.

Great gift for my son for his Confirmation patron saint.

For children 10 and up. The many inspiring perils and adventures of St. Paul - all endured to bring the Gospel to heathen nations. A truly great inspiration to both children and adults.
